

As the Nazis began their assault on the Jewish population, they sought to break down their spiritual, economic, and social life, and to isolate them from society, and subsequently massed into ghettos and murdered.

The Germans were destroying Polish statehood and culture, murdering people in authority, resorting to terror and committing crimes against civilians. Furthermore, Jews were being removed altogether from business life, isolated from society, and subsequently massed into ghettos and murdered.

Niemcy niszczyli polską państwowość i kulturę, mordowali przywódców, stosowali terror i popełniali przestępstwa przeciwko cywilom. Ponadto Żydów pomogli z życia gospodarczego, izolowali od społeczeństwa i zamknięli w gettach i mordowali.
